in depth descriptions of various operas with scene by scene aria by aria accounts the phantom of the opera by gaston leroux translated by alexander teixeira de mattos plus a bonus chapter called the paris opera house full original english translation the phantom of the opera french le fantôme de l'opéra is a novel by french writer gaston leroux it was first published as a serialisation in le gaulois from september 23 1909 to january 8 1910 it was published in volume form in april 1910 by pierre lafitte the novel is partly inspired by historical events at the paris opera during the nineteenth century and an apocryphal tale concerning the use of a former ballet pupil s skeleton in hector berlioz s 1841 production of der freischütz nowadays it is overshadowed by the success of its various stage and film adaptations the most notable of these are the 1925 film depiction featuring lon chaney and andrew lloyd webber s 1986 musical plot summary opera singer christine triumphs at the gala on the night of the old managers retirement her old childhood friend raoul hears her sing and recalls his love for christine at this time there are rumors of a phantom living at the opera and he makes himself known to the managers through letters and malevolent acts some time after the gala the paris opera performs faust with the prima donna carlotta playing the lead against the phantom s wishes during the performance carlotta loses her voice and the grand chandelier plummets into the audience christine is kidnapped by the phantom and taken to his home in the cellars of the opera and he reveals his true identity to her simply as erik though not his real name he plans to keep her there for a few days hoping she will come to love him but she causes erik to change his plans when she unmasks him and to the horror of both beholds his eyeless lipless face which resembles a skull dried up by the centuries and covered in yellowed dead flesh fearing that she will leave him he decides to keep her with him forever but when christine requests release after two weeks he agrees on condition that she wear his ring and be faithful to him on the roof of the opera house christine tells raoul that erik abducted her raoul promises to take christine away to a place where erik can never find her raoul tells christine he shall act on his promise the next day to which christine agrees she however has pity for erik and will not go until she has sung a song for him one last time neither is aware that erik has been listening to their conversation and that he has become extremely jealous the following night erik kidnaps christine during a production of faust and tries to force christine to marry him he states that if she refuses he will use explosives which he has planted in the cellars to destroy the entire opera house christine refuses until she realizes that erik learned of raoul s attempt to rescue her and has trapped raoul in a hot torture chamber along with the persian an old acquaintance of erik who was going to help raoul to save them and the people above christine agrees to marry erik erik initially tries to drown raoul using the water which would have been used to douse the explosives but christine begs and offers to be his living bride promising him not to kill herself after becoming his bride as she had both contemplated and attempted earlier in the novel erik eventually rescues raoul from his torture chamber when erik is alone with christine he lifts his mask to kiss her on her forehead and is given a kiss back erik reveals that he has never received a kiss not even from his own mother nor has been allowed to give one and is overcome with emotion covering a broad range of styles this comprehensive volume includes entries for more than 450 operas that have been performed over the last four centuries organized from a to z for easy reference it is a complete guide that is certain to inform and entertain any opera buff 500 photos in 1910 the mystery novelist gaston leroux working from scraps of history theatrical lore and his own fertile imagination created a masterpiece in le fantôme de l'opéra the story of a disfigured composer who lives in the labyrinthine depths of the paris opera after the breathtaking debut of christine daaaé the whispers of an opera ghost seem to become reality as the young singer vanishes as the phantom strikes again and again targeting foes from a jealous diva to a romantic rival leroux spins a thriller of obsession and violence with at its center a tormented murderer who awakens our deepest fears and sympathies the inspiration for andrew lloyd webber's long running musical leroux's novel is still more riveting than anything broadway could produce the story of a man named erik an eccentric physically deformed genius who terrorizes the opera garnier in paris he builds his home beneath it and takes the love of his life a beautiful soprano under his wing the story of the phantom of the opera a half crazed musician hiding in the labyrinth of the famous paris opera house and creating a number of strange and mysterious events to further the career of a beautiful young singer is today regarded as one of the most famous of all horror stories widely mentioned in the same breath as frankenstein and dracula yet the fame of this novel is based almost entirely on the various film versions while the original book has been largely ignored and is rarely in print an accelerated reader title the opera ghost really existed he was not as was long believed a creature of the imagination of the artists the superstition of the managers or a product of the absurd and impressionable brains of the young ladies of the ballet their mothers the box keepers the cloak room attendants or the concierge yes he existed in flesh and blood although he assumed the complete appearance of a real phantom that is to say of a spectral shade gaston leroux may 6 168 april 15 1927 was a french journalist and author famous for his writing of the phantom of the opera destined to adaption on stage and screen the novel began as a newspaper serialization in le gaulois from 23 september 1909 to 8 january 1910 this translation is from the first english american publication in 1911 this translation is by alexander teixeiros de mattos from this first english edition the lights dim at the paris opera house the exquisite christine daae enraptures the audience with her mellifluous voice immediately raoul de chagny falls deeply in love but the legend of the disfigured opera ghost haunts the performance and as raoul begins his pursuit of christine he is pulled into the depths of the opera house and into the depths of human emotions soon raoul discovers that the ghost is real and that he wields a terrifying power over christine a power as unimaginable as the ghost s masked face as raoul and the ghost vie for christine s love a journey begins into the dark recesses of the human heart where desire vulnerability fear and violence unravel in a tragic confrontation christine is a beautiful young singer at the paris opera she is watched by the opera s phantom a mysterious masked figure who terrorises the opera s management and players with the phantom s help christine rises to become the opera s star performer but when the phantom demands her heart in return christine is torn between gratitude and pity for her strange benefactor and love for her childhood sweetheart raoul there are rumors that the opera house is haunted by a phantom who makes himself known by sending letters to the managers and by causing disturbances on the retirement gala for the old opera managers opera singer christine attracts the attention of her childhood sweetheart raoul one night during a performance of faust with the resident prima donna carlotta playing the female lead the phantom causes carlotta to lose her voice and the chandelier to fall into the audience christine is kidnapped by the masked phantom he tells her his name is erik and reveals her love for her when christine unmask the phantom out of curiosity his ugliness shocks her the phantom decides to keep christine prisoner for the rest of her life but then he allows her to leave after she promises to wear his ring and remain faithful to him christine later tells raoul that she was kidnapped raoul promises to run away with her both unaware that erik has been listening to their conversation during a production of faust erik kidnaps christine again and gives her an ultimatum marry him or he will blow up the entire opera house christine refuses but then she finds out that erik has kidnapped raoul as well as the persian erik s old acquaintance and has trapped them inside a torture chamber in order to save them as well as the occupants of the opera house christine agrees to marry erik
